

Alexandria Gazette.

TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 12

LOCAL NEWS.

Those who leave the city during the summer can have the GAZETTE mailed to them for any length of time, and the address changed as often as desired. The subscription price is 50 cts. per month, or at that rate for a greater or less time.

Subscribers who fail to receive the GAZETTE regularly will please report such failures this office promptly.

For this section fair weather, slight changes in temperature, winds shifting to southerly.

PERSONAL.—Mr. E. J. Miller is visiting relatives in Rockville, Md.

Mrs. Henry Schwarz has gone to Philadelphia.

Mr. Frank Suter, Mrs. Mary Suter and Miss Janet Ashby are at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Blackburn were among recent arrivals at Newport, R. I.

Mrs. Bedford Brown has gone to Orkney Springs to spend the summer.

Mrs. Ella Smoot has gone to Old Point.

Mr. Wm. N. Lambdin, of this city, is now in New York and will sail on the steamship State of Nevada, July 14th, for Glasgow, Scotland, from which place he will make a tour of Great Britain and France this summer and autumn.

Mrs. Mary Paulding and children left yesterday for the mountains of West Virginia to spend the summer.

Miss Fannie French is visiting in Lynchburg.

Mr. Geo. W. Dearborn, of Amherst county, is visiting his relatives in this city.

The many friends of Mr. J. H. Burroughs will be glad to learn that his health is improving.

Alderman Strauss has returned from Charlottesville where he went to attend the funeral of his little grandson.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge N. B. Meade presiding.—Elizabeth Rudd qualified as guardian of Charles Rudd.

Louis Kraft was appointed administrator of O. T. Stone, deceased, and J. A. Field, J. T. Harris and I. Eichberg appraisers.

R. W. Wattle was appointed administrator of J. D. N. of Nathaniel Wattle, deceased.

Kelly Carr vs. R. A. Robbins et al.; judgment for plaintiffs.

Mitchell, Vance & Co. vs. Wm. Cogan; judgment for plaintiff.

City Council of Alexandria vs. H. B. Putman; judgment for plaintiff.

J. J. West et al. vs. George West et al.; decree of reference.

Hooe's admr. vs. P. H. Hooe, J. W. Armstrong appointed commissioner in place of C. W. Wattle, deceased; decree of reference.

James Richards, indicted yesterday for grand larceny, was released on bail.

The civil docket was called, cases set and court adjourned till to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

PLEASANT ENTERTAINMENT.—On Saturday evening a delightful entertainment was given at Oatlands, Loudoun county, for the benefit of the foreign mission. Mr. Carter, the owner of the place, very generously fitted up his large barn for the affair and quite a handsome sum was realized.

The entertainment consisted of tableaux, recitations, songs, etc., participated in by the Misses Custis, Carter, Helen and Kathleen Doyle, Florence Herbert, Venie Harrison and Messrs. Douglas Hoffmeier, Connie Carter, George Weidmeier and others. After the performance refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was devoted to dancing.

THE OLD DOMINION BOAT CLUB held a meeting last night at which it was determined to enlarge their boat house by extending it forty feet toward the Strand. An excursion was decided upon to be given on the 27th instant. The question of purchasing a four-oared boat and a single shell was considered, but action deferred. It was determined to enter a four-oared gig crew in the regatta to be held at Washington in the fall. The "protest" of the Richmond club, concerning the French cup, won by the Old Dominion at the late regatta, was discussed but no action taken, as it was considered a question for the Rowing Association to determine.

SCHOOL BOARD.—A meeting of the City School Board was called for last night, but no quorum appeared. It was informally agreed among the six members present that the necessary repairs to the school buildings should be ordered by the Committee on Schoolhouses and Furniture and that a stairway should be built at the Academy building, on the outside of the present building, in order to increase the size of the rooms therein.

FEES COLLECTED.—The fee book of the Clerk of the County Court, Mr. H. H. Young, from September 1st, 1886, to date, shows that he has collected for the State $457.57, with the prospect that this amount will be considerably increased by the 1st of September next, at which date he will transmit to the State Auditor of Public Accounts the amount he has on hand to the credit of the State.

THE EXCURSION TO NIGHT.—The Alexandria Musical Association will give their first moonlight excursion to River View to-night. The steamer Mary Washington has been chartered for the occasion, and as everything necessary for the comfort and pleasure of the company has been carefully looked after by the committee having the matter in charge an enjoyable evening is assured for who may attend.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild with one lodger but no prisoners at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Peter Lucas, colored, charged with running into the vehicle of Geo. Calvert, was discharged.

Sophronia Ferguson, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

SUSTAINED.—In the general term of the District of Columbia Court yesterday the judgment of the court below in the case of E. A. Tolson vs. the Inland and Seaboard Coasting Company was affirmed. This was a case in which Tolson sued and recovered damages for bodily injuries sustained by him while the steamer Thompson was making one of the lower river landings some time ago.

ACCIDENT.—A young white man named Egleman, of Fredericksburg, while at work in the brick yards at Waterloo, yesterday, had his left hand badly mutilated by being caught in a mould. He was brought to this city where two of his fingers were amputated by Doctors Powell and Fairfax.

Alice Manly, who was arrested Saturday night for indecent conduct and who was yesterday sent to the work house for the non payment of the fine imposed by the Mayor, is the girl who ran away from here with a circus about eight years ago and who recently returned from Staunton.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Today is the anniversary of the battle of the Boyne.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to William Seymour and Ida Lyles, both of Fairfax county.

Among the freight brought to this city this morning by the steamer Excelsior was a large quantity of salt from Newport News.

Meetings are being held throughout the State for the selection of delegates to the Roanoke convention to be held on the 4th proximo.

In the municipal election at Annapolis, Md., yesterday, the democrats elected the mayor, counselor and four aldermen. The republicans elected two aldermen.

Yesterday was the last day on which the ten per cent. discount on city tax bills could be saved. The discount from this date till the first of September is five per cent.

The office of the late Dr. M. M. Lewis, on Washington street, is being torn down and the grounds surrounding the residence, now owned by Mr. W. B. Dainierfeld, thus extended.

This is the night for the regular semi-monthly meeting of the City Council, but it is doubtful if a meeting will be held as several of the members wish to attend the Musical Association excursion. Under the rules if no meeting is held to night one will be held to-morrow night.

Secretary Endicott has decided that unless the National Rifles and the Union Veteran Corps (Old Guard) consent to be mustered into the District militia under Gen. Ordway they must immediately surrender their arms and that portion of their equipment which they received from the War Department before the new departure was begun.

Lieut. Smith left here to-day for Philadelphia in search of James Baker, the horse thief who recently made his escape from the jail in this city by means of wooden keys, which he made in his cell. It was reported here that Baker has been seen in Philadelphia. Lieut. Smith telegraphed back here this evening that the suspected man was not Baker.

The Norton Shipbuilding Company have several life-saving boats and yachts under construction. One of the former is ordered by the French Government, for experiment, and the other by the United States. Should these boats meet the requirements the governments of both nations will adopt them to be used in the life-saving stations along their coasts.

EDUCATIONAL.

YOUNG MEN OF VIRGINIA.

Do you desire to fit yourselves for a useful business career? If so, attend

Dunsmore's Business College.

This institution has been incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Virginia and endorsed by some of her best citizens. It not only teaches young and middle-aged men the theory of Business and Accounting, but each and every one is required to do actual business transactions, as they would have to do in every-day life. They are thoroughly trained in everything pertaining to business life.

STANTON, Va., July 30, 1884.

We take pleasure in recommending to the public "Dunsmore's Business College" of this city. We have attended and taken part in several examinations of Mr. Dunsmore's pupils, and can testify to his thoroughness as a teacher, and
